

Mother Aische vom Hardtwaldsee

Large, solid and powerfully built black & brown with correct structure and great bone strength. Powerful head with highly intelligent expression. Self-confident with nerves of steel, nothing can shake her. Highly trainable, dependable and very willing to respond to anything asked of her. Naturally social and sure in every situation, shows natural desire to track with excellent desire to overcome and solve problems on her own. Loves to retrieve and play with a ball. Powerful and sure in protection, intimidating guarding with full hard grips on the sleeve. Received pronounced high courage ratings in every competition. Well-known working line combination of top schutzhund performers known for optimum health and functionality.

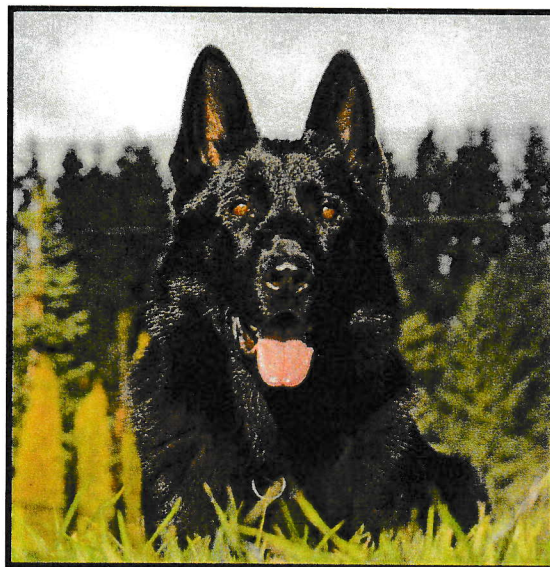

Father:

Elvis vom Kammberg

WB, AD, BH, IGP1, KKL

Especially large, solid jet-black with superior dark eyes demonstrating great looks with superior functionality. Powerfully built with seldom seen broad strong head, heavy bone strength along with correct proportions. Sound and sure temperament, unshakable in every situation. Steady and sure, impossible to find fault, always full of self-confidence with nerves of steel. Shows impeccable manners inside and outside, loves children and has no interest in other dogs. Totally non-threatening character unless challenged, will turn into a knock-down power house in protection if needed! True working character with great desire to perform. Highly ranked from all the judges awarding special breed worthiness comments. Original German Breed Report: Very noticeably easy to handle, tremendous presence, shows his capacity to solve problems and concentrate with calm and methodical deep nose tracking technique. Highly dedicated to the handler, demonstrating natural guidability along with correct execution of the obedience exercises. Drive for the ball is exactly what it should be, will do anything for it and will always retrieve no matter where it is. Fantastic in protection, the more he is challenged the stronger he becomes. Grips are always full and very hard. Hardness and fighting drive especially pronounced. Strong determination, comes like a freight train with tremendous impact on the long distance courage test. Not afraid to engage anywhere, anytime or any place. Comes from a long line of top performing german nationals and world championship competitors. Sire is BSP competitor Ixtrem vom Eisernen Kreuz, consistently scoring high with a long list of accomplishments. Come from top east german lines on the father line and BSP winners on the mother line. Mother is V-Tica vom Kammberg, lines to all-time greats, Tyson von der Schiffsiache and Dack aus der Konigshohle. Hips and elbows certified a1.